How long do we keep your information

We will keep customer information for the period when the customer has an account with us, and such further period during which you may bring a claim against us and for us to be able to defend ourselves. We will also retain your information as necessary to comply with legal, accounting or reporting requirements. We will store our customers' data while they have an account with us and for at least five years after the account is closed, but we may store your data for longer if required for legal claims or other purposes stated in this notice. We will keep information about visitors to our websites (not being customers) for a reasonable length of time that lets us understand how people use our website and any technical issues they have. Usually this will not exceed 12 months. We will keep information about individuals who are our contacts at our business customer for the duration of our relationship with the relevant business and where we are not made aware that the individual no longer works for it. We may keep our correspondence with these individuals for longer if necessary.

Cookies

Cookies are small text files sent by a web server and stored on a visitor's browser which are read later by the server when the visitor returns to the site. Cookies store information such as passwords (encrypted), usernames, shopping cart, certain preferences, etc. allowing visitors to visit sites repeatedly without having to enter the same information over and over. Cookies are not used to determine the personal identity of anyone visiting the site.

Third Parties

The Company may convey the Client's Personal Data to associated or affiliated organizations, auditors, agents (including payment agents), banks or other authorized organizations or persons ("Authorized Persons") for the sole purpose of processing the Client's trading and non-trading instructions, control over the Company's activity or involve these persons in the process of client service delivery. The Company guarantees that all Authorized Persons will adhere to the terms of this Policy and take all necessary steps to protect the Client's Personal Data. The Company may provide Personal Data to third parties who are not the Company's partners, agents or affiliates only when requested by representatives of legal or administrative authorities.

Use of Information

By registering an account with the Company, you consent to the use of your personal details, and their processing: collection, recording, classification, aggregation, storage (updating, changing) extraction, use, transfer (distribution, provision of access) anonymization, blocking, deletion, and destruction of any information relating directly or indirectly to you, your trade transactions and payments, in accordance with this

Security and Protection

Company takes the issue of security very seriously and takes all possible measures to ensure the safety of the Client's confidential information, including adhering to strict standards for the internal use of confidential information and using leading data storage technology. We offer the use of a secure server. All supplied sensitive/credit information is transmitted via Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology and then encrypted into our Payment gateway providers database only to be accessible by those authorized with special access rights to such systems, and are required to keep the information confidential. To make a payment using a payment bankcard the Client fill out a special form on the processing center website. We do not ask the Client to provide complete payment information. To avoid cases of dishonest use of payment data, the data transferred to the Company in shorthand form via a secure connection.

Third-party sites

Our site may, from time to time, contain links to and from the websites of our partner networks, advertisers and affiliates. If you follow a link to any of these websites, please note that these websites have their own privacy policies and that we do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies. Please check these policies before you submit any personal data to these websites.

Your Rights

You have certain rights in relation to your information:

- the right to delete your data (all or part thereof);
- the right to change or correct your data, in particular when it is incorrectly stated;
- the right to object or restrict processing of your data;
- the right to access to your data and / or a copy of your data, which you provided to us.

Also, you have the right to prohibit the use of your personal data for marketing purposes. You can exercise this right by contacting us at any time.

Please note that the implementation of some of your rights, depending on the situation, may limit, complicate or completely exclude the possibility of further cooperation.
